Terms & Conditions

In order to qualify for a complimentary membership or day pass, the following conditions must be met:

- Arrange, and satisfactorily complete, a tour of Werqwise at 149 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, with a member of the Werqwise Sales team.
- Provide documentation evidencing having received the full dose(s) of the Covid vaccination.
- Sign the Werqwise agreement for the fixed term as applicable, with no fee or retainer/deposit.
- Provide a valid credit card. This will be kept on account in case of any damages or services used beyond the scope of the free services. An itemized invoice will be provided before any charges will occur.
- If the customer would like to continue the service beyond the free period, a new agreement with standard terms and conditions will be executed. Fees will be arranged with the Sales representative and depend on the services selected.
- If no new agreement is executed, the membership automatically terminates.
 - All personal items must be removed from the Werqwise premises on the last day of membership.
